

DISNEY SERVES SECOND HELPING OF FREE DINING

This fall, travelers have a new chance to dine for free at Walt Disney World® Resorts.

This new promotion arrives just a few days after a different Dine at Disney for Free promotion expired, giving travelers a second chance, or a chance to go back for seconds.

From July 29 through September 26, travelers who book four nights at Walt Disney World® Resorts, including theme park tickets, will receive either the Free Disney Dining Plan or the Free Disney Quick-Service Dining Plan, depending on hotel category.

This offer is valid for travel between September 27 and December 17, 2009.

The Free Disney Dining Plan includes one table service meal, one counter service meal and one snack daily per guest, per night at participating vendors.

The Free Disney Quick-Service Dining Plan includes two Quick Service meals and two select snacks daily, as well as a refillable drink mug.

Vacation packages include:

From $599 per person, 4-nights at Disney's All Star Sports Resort, including roundtrip airfare, hotel transfers, 4-day Disney theme park tickets, and the Free Disney Quick-Service Dining Plan.

From $755 per person, 4-nights at Disney's Caribbean Beach Resort, including roundtrip airfare, hotel transfers, 4-day Disney theme park tickets, and the Free Disney Dining Plan.

Additional taxes, government-imposed fees, terms and conditions may apply.

Travelers can call 1.877.Liberty or inquire online at LibertyTravel.com for bookings and full terms and conditions.
