

FLY TO EUROPE FOR $99 WITH LIBERTY TRAVEL

From May 3 through May 9, travelers booking a European river cruise at Liberty Travel will pay just $99 on airfare.

This offer is available exclusively at Liberty Travel for one week starting May 3, and comes courtesy of Avalon Waterways, a cruise line that specializes in river and small ship cruising.

Avalon is part of the Globus family of brands, a global leader in escorted travel. Avalon has won numerous industry honors, including a place on the 2009 Condé Nast Traveler Gold List.

"We're excited to be partnered with Liberty Travel on what is really a phenomenal promotion," said Jessica Gordon, a Channel Marketing Specialist at Globus.

"Anyone considering traveling in 2009 won't want to miss out."

Some of the cruise itineraries include:

–"The Legendary Danube," an 11-day voyage from Prague to Budapest, from $2,999;

–"Romantic Rhine," an 8-day voyage that travels through the Rhine Gorge, Amsterdam's canals and many other sites, from $2,289;

–"Flavors of Burgundy and Provence," an 11-day voyage through scenic France, with plenty of opportunities to sample local cuisine and wine, from $3,109.

All prices are based on land/cruise only. Sail dates vary.

To receive air for $99, travelers must book a 2009 air-inclusive Avalon Europe River Cruise through a Liberty Travel agency. Bookings must be made and discount must be applied between May 3 and May 9, 2009. Additional restrictions and government-imposed fees apply.

Travelers can visit LibertyTravel.com or call their nearest Liberty Travel Store at 1-877-Liberty for bookings, details and complete terms and conditions.

Issued on April 14, 2009 by

Jameson Kowalczyk

201.934.3823

kowalczykj@libgotravel.com