

LIBERTY CATCHES ATTENTION OF TRAVELERS WITH ITCHY FEET

Liberty Travel has caught the attention of a growing number of globetrotters looking to explore some of the world's more faraway destinations, including Egypt, Thailand and Dubai.

Liberty Travel appeals to this niche market of travelers for numerous reasons.

The Price Beat Guarantee is one, as trips like these come with a slightly higher price tag than typical jaunts in the Caribbean or Mexico.

And for many, there's an added layer of comfort that comes with having a travel agent, particularly in a destination far from home.

Places like Beijing and Hong Kong rank high on the list of sought-after destinations, and travelers shopping for a trip to either will find Liberty has plenty of affordable packages, including:

*A 4-night trip to Beijing starting at $1,375 per person, with accommodations at the 5-star Sofitel Wanda Beijing. For $165 travelers can add a tour that includes stops at the Great Wall at Badaling, the Ming Tombs, Cloisonne Factory and a Beijing roast duck dinner.

*Three nights in Hong Kong from $1,365 per person, with accommodations at The Excelsior Hong Kong. For $114, travelers can add a Macau Day Tour.

*A 4-night stay in Kowloon, one of the most visited parts of the Hong Kong Territory. Packages start at $1,749 and include accommodations at the Novotel Nathan Road, with complimentary breakfast, afternoon tea and evening cocktails. For $19 travelers can add a Hong Kong Island Tour.

All packages include roundtrip airfare out of New York and hotel transfers. Booking and travel-by dates vary.

Travelers can visit LibertyTravel.com or call their nearest Liberty Travel Store at 1-877-Liberty for bookings, details and complete terms and conditions.

Issued on April 22, 2009 by
Jameson Kowalczyk
201.934.3823
kowalczykj@libgotravel.com