

TRAVEL DEALS ON LAND AND AT SEA WITH LIBERTY TRAVEL

Summer is underway and fall is fast approaching, and Liberty Travel is offering plenty of inspiration for anyone still undecided how to spend their vacation time during either season, with vacations on land and by cruise that start at $229 per person.

The $229 offer is for a three day Bahamas cruise on Royal Caribbean's Majesty of the Seas, sailing out of Miami, with ports of call in Cococay and Nassau, sailing on September 18, 2009. Airfare is additional.

The package also includes $50 onboard credit per person when cruisers book a deluxe stateroom.

There are many other vacation packages available, in destinations that include Las Vegas, Madrid, China, Mazatlan, Los Cabos, Jamaica, St. Lucia and Barbados, as well as cruises to the Caribbean, Greek Isles, Hawaii, Canada and Alaska.

Other packages include:

*In Vegas, 3 nights at the Luxor from $489 per person including hotel transfers and airfare; the package also includes two tickets to Cirque du Soleil® or Disney's "The Lion King."

*A 5-night cruise through the Western Caribbean aboard Royal Caribbean's Enchantment of the Seas from $349 per person, sailing out of Ft. Lauderdale with ports of call in Grand Cayman and Cozumel; this package also include $50 onboard credit per person for cruisers who book a balcony category stateroom or above. Airfare is additional.

*A 7-night stay in Barbados at the Allamanda Beach Hotel from $595 per person, including hotel transfers and airfare; the package also includes $400 air credit per couple, full breakfast for two daily, a gourmet dining card and a $25 voucher at Oistin's Fish Fry, one of the most popular attractions in Barbados.

Certain booking dates, terms and conditions, and government imposed fees may apply. Travelers should contact a travel agent at 1-877-Liberty or visit LibertyTravel.com for full details.
