

BUDGET-FRIENDLY VACATIONS IN MEXICO AND COSTA RICA

With travel deals that include free airfare to Cancun, savings of up to 50% and resorts where kids stay and eat free, Liberty Travel provides plenty of options for travelers shopping for an affordable getaway in Latin America.

One of the best deals of 2009 was Liberty's "Free Airfare to Mexico" promotion, a chance for travelers to pay $0 on airfare to Cancun or Riviera Maya when they booked select vacation packages.

Travelers shopping for a summer or fall getaway can still take advantage of this offer, though not for much longer: The promotion ends on July 30, and is subject to availability.

Liberty Travel has a Cancun vacation starting at $415 per person.

The package includes: Three nights at the Grand Oasis Cancun, a 3 & 1/2-star all-inclusive resort, and hotel transfers. Travelers who book 3 nights will receive one free roundtrip ticket; travelers who stay 7 nights or longer will receive two.

For families, a Puerto Vallarta vacation starting at $419 per person comes with the added benefit that kids stay and eat for free.

The package includes: Roundtrip airfare, 4 nights at the 3-star Fiesta Americana Puerto Vallarta and hotel transfers. All guests can save 25% on food, beverages and spa treatments, and kids 16 years and under stay and eat free.

For travelers looking for a little adventure, and who have a little more budget, an all-inclusive vacation in Costa Rica starts at $955 per person.

The package includes: Roundtrip airfare, 4 nights at the 3-star all-inclusive Allegro Papagayo and hotel transfers. Kids 12 years and under stay and eat free.

All pricing is based on airfare out of New York City, and certain booking and travel dates apply. Additional taxes, government-imposed fees, and conditions may also apply.

Travelers can call 1.877.Liberty or inquire online at LibertyTravel.com for bookings and full terms and conditions.

Issued on June 30, 2009 by
Jameson Kowalczyk
201.934.3823
kowalczykj@libgotravel.com